

INVITATION – ABIAL PANEL DISCUSSION & COCKTAIL

DATE: Thursday, May 8, 2014
VENUE: Luxembourg Chamber of Commerce (7, rue Alcide de Gasperi, Kirchberg – car parking under the building)
TIME: 6.15 pm – 7.30 pm (registration as from 5.45 pm)

Luxembourg's Tax System - a 2020 vision?

How will Luxembourg's tax system evolve in the next six years?

What plans have the 2013 Coalition government already announced? Why is VAT going up? What have been the conclusions of the debate on the 2014 budget? How strongly will Luxembourg feel the effects of "external influencers" - such as the OECD and its BEPS initiative, and the EU Commission? Will Luxembourg's tax "rulings" practice change radically?

What do we already know about the promised 2016 tax reform? What could we expect to be in it? How could it help the fund management industry? What should be in a "wish list" for 2016?

A distinguished panel will discuss all of these questions, and any others that you may have on this vital topic for the Luxembourg business environment.

The panel will be chaired by David Roach, Tax Technical Expert, PwC Luxembourg, who will open the meeting by giving a summary of the background and recent developments.

Our panel will consist of

Georges Deitz Tax Partner, Deloitte Luxembourg
Keith O'Donnell Managing Partner, ATOZ Luxembourg,
Chairman ALFI Double Tax Treaties Committee
Wim Piot Tax Leader, PwC Luxembourg

After the formal meeting finishes, drinks will be served – please join the ABIAL Committee, meet your network, and raise questions in an informal setting with the panellists.

Colleagues who are not ABIAL members, but who have a particular interest in the topic, are particularly welcome to attend this meeting. Please circulate this invitation to your colleagues.
