BEPS – the OECD presents...

On Monday, 5 October 2015 the OECD published the full package of reports that it had committed to under its July 2013 Action Plan. 15 reports, comprising 1,600 pages in total, were approved by the G20 Finance Ministers' Meeting in Lima on 8 October.

What are the key conclusions? Is this the last we will hear of BEPS? What is it now likely to mean for Luxembourg? Are there specific issues for UCITS or Alternative Investment Fund managers to address?

David Roach, PwC Luxembourg's Tax Technical Expert, has been following the BEPS project closely since its inception. He will present his analysis and his personal views on each of these questions.

After the formal meeting finishes, drinks will be served – please join the ABIAL Committee, meet your network, and raise questions in an informal setting.

Colleagues who are not ABIAL members, but who have a particular interest in the topic, are particularly welcome to attend this meeting. Please circulate this invitation to your colleagues.
