

INVITATION – ABIAL PUBLIC SECTOR ACCOUNTING EVENING

DATE: Tuesday, November 21, 2017
VENUE: Cercle Munster (5-7 Rue Münster, 2160 Luxembourg)
TIME: 6.45 pm – 8.15 pm (registration as from 6.30 pm)

ABIAL invites you to an evening at the Cercle Munster, with two international experts on public sector accounting, who will discuss the global take up of accruals accounting in government accounts, where Europe stands, and what this means for accountants in both public sector and private firms.

Our two guests are:

Ian Carruthers - chair of the International Public Sector Accounting Standards Board (IPSASB) since January 2016, having served as a member since 2010. As a member, he led the IPSASB's work on Long Term Financial Sustainability and alignment between IPSASs and Government Finance Statistics. After joining HM Treasury from PricewaterhouseCoopers in 1999, Ian played a key role in the UK Government's transition from cash to accrual budgeting and reporting, in particular leading its Whole of Government Accounts programme.

Thomas Müller-Marqués Berger - Global Head of International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSASs) for Ernst & Young GmbH, as well as Chair of the Public Sector Group of Accountancy Europe. He also serves on the European Commission (EC) and EUROSTAT European Public Sector Accounting Standards Task Forces, and is a member of the EU Advisory Group on Accounting Standards and a member of the German Public Sector Committee of the IDW.

Administration

The cost of the event is €10 (which will also cover refreshments). This should preferably be paid in advance via bank transfer to BIL, IBAN LU56 0024 1398 5698 8300, although cash payments from registered participants will also be accepted on the evening.

Reservation

Reservations should be made via the ABIAL website (www.abial.lu), no later than the end of the day on Monday November 20, 2017.

Kind regards

Jason Rea
Chairman of ABIAL
